

1. What is our policy regarding the use of AI in this course?

a) AI is allowed as an assistant, but your own contribution must be clear. ✓

b) AI use is strictly prohibited for all assignments.

c) AI can only be used for grammar checking, not coding.

2. Which of these is NOT a development environment that you can use with R?

a) Tidyverse ✓

b) Positron

c) RStudio

d) Cursor

3. Instead of using fragile, absolute paths like `setwd("C:/Users/Documents/data")`, we should use which tool for relative paths?

a) The here package and `here()` function ✓

b) The dplyr package and `select()` function

c) The readr package and the `read_csv()` function.

4. R Markdown and Quarto are literate programming tools that combine code and text. Which of these is NOT a common output format for them?

a) HTML dashboard

b) DOCX report

c) HTML report

d) PNG file ✓

5. Within the tidyverse, one of these functions is NOT used for manipulating columns?

a) `mutate()`

b) `rename()`

c) `select()`

d) `filter()` ✓

6. In a standard data science and statistics project, what is the most commonly recommended sequence of operations?

a) Descriptive Visualization → Statistical Modeling → Data Cleaning

b) Data Cleaning → Descriptive Visualization → Statistical Modeling

c) Statistical Modeling → Data Cleaning → Descriptive Visualization